

APPROVED PLANNING ELECTIVE COURSES FULFILLING GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

Note: There are four general education requirements that are not satisfied by the core curriculum of the BAUP program. These four include all 6 hours of the Humanities and the Arts requirement (HUM), 3 hours of the Cultural Studies: Western requirement (CW), 3 hours of the Cultural Studies: Non-Western requirement (CNW), and 3 hours of the Natural Sciences & Technology requirement (NAT). (UP 205 covers the other 3 required NAT hours). Some of these courses count additionally as planning electives and can be used to fulfill both the planning elective and general education requirements. All planning elective courses are listed below according to the four above general education requirement(s) that they fulfill, with those fulfilling multiple requirements listed again at the end of this document.

Some of the courses in this list are part of a sequence and may require fulfillment of prerequisites. Also, make sure to check in advance the accessibility of the courses you are interested in. They may be open only to students in certain majors and/or departments.
